SOLICITORS, CANVASSERS AND PEDDLERS

Ord. No. 2003-18

Sec.26-3. Restrictions and Requirements

- (a) Solicitors, peddlers and canvassers may operate in a residential area between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. and in a commercial area during the hours a business is open.
- (b) Solicitors and peddlers may operate in a commercial area when permission of the property owner has been given. The operation must be of a temporary nature. The business tax receipt does not permit the sale of goods, wares or merchandise to the general public nor does it permit the attraction of vehicular or pedestrian traffic from the public right-of-way onto the private property by any means.
- (c) Solicitors, peddlers and canvassers are restricted from soliciting, peddling or canvassing in areas where such activities would materially obstruct, impede or interfere with the free flow of pedestrian or vehicular traffic.
- (d) Solicitors, peddlers and canvassers are restricted from soliciting, peddling and canvassing on premises in areas where a notice stating "No Solicitors" or "No Solicitation" is posted in plain view.
- (e) No more than two (2) solicitors, peddlers or canvassers shall contact any one (1) member of the public at any one (1) time.
- (f) Solicitors, peddlers and canvassers will not persist in their activities after the request has been declined, and they will immediately and peaceably depart from the premises when requested to do so by the occupant.
- (g) Solicitors, peddlers and canvassers shall not harass persons by demanding, threatening or intimidating conduct.

I HAVE READ AND FULLY UNDERSTAND THE RESTRICTIONS AND REQUIREMENTS AS SET FORTH ABOVE.
